Description:
We need to learn from Asia. Australia's journalism courses have been playing catch up with technology so that we can match Asia's best. But there's more to good journalism than having access to good gear. The Asian universities I have visited reckon that classroom work is only a fraction of what students need to learn. Hong Kong University believes they should know about other cultures, teamwork, dealing with unexpected challenges, democracy and operating within a budget. While we were in... \(read more\)
